REGULAR DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,
STEPHEN ARNOLD DOUGLAS,
OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON,
OF GEORGIA.

FRIDAY MORNING ..... JULY 6, 1860.

THE FOOTFALLS OF DESTINY.

WE ARE BOUND TO SPREAD AND SPREAD UNTIL WE EMBRACE THE ENTIRE DOMINIONS OF AMERICA, INCLUDING THE ADJACENT ISLANDS, AND BECOME ONE GRAND UNION BOUND REPUBLIC. LET ANY OTHER POWER TAKE ONE OR NOT, YOU CANNOT HINDER IT. IT IS THE DESTINY OF THIS CONTINENT. THIS CONTINENT WAS GIVEN AS AN ASYLUM FOR THE OPPRESSED OF ALL NATIONS, AND AS A NURSERY FOR LIBERTY. AND THIS GOVERNMENT AND CONSTITUTION FROM A PART OF THE WORLD, THE ISLAND UNDER THE DRAGON'S TAIL, THE BIRTHPLACE AND NURSERY OF LIBERTY.

—STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.

☞ The Central Committees of Pennsylvania and New Jersey are a good deal exercised. They want a sort of Union ticket—a medley of Democrats and Disunionists The Democrats are not simple enough to be caught in that snare. We don't see why strength and weakness should be united, nor why Douglas should be saddled with such a load as these Yancyites would be in either State. Besides, who could trust these Bolters? They were all pledged, either expressed or implied, to abide the result of the Baltimore Convention, and now they can't do it because a few Bolters left. They have professed for the last dozen years to be for non-intervention with slavery in the Territories. Now they can construe away the plainest promises and pledges. Let no compromises be made; for they will be sure to cheat. If they desire to go off and sell Lincoln, let them do so. Even in that they want to cheat. They want to pretend that they are very much opposed to Black Republicanism. So these Danites pretended in Illinois, when they labored to elect Lincoln to the Senate. Some men of the South—the leaders of the Yancey movement—are pledged to resist to secession and revolution if Lincoln be elected, and, at the same time, they and their allies are taking what measures they can to ensure his election. Let no compromises be made with these Secessionists. They have an object of their own, incompatible with the objects and purposes of the Democratic party. Let the Democracy of Pennsylvania and New Jersey [illegible] these officeholders to [illegible] and Johnson.

Fizzle.

[illegible] a hand-bill in Harrison[illegible] a ratification meeting at [illegible] Cynthiana, on the 4th [illegible] read out in vast capitals. [illegible] out the meeting didn't. Our [illegible] says the majority of the Democratic county are for Douglas, and [illegible] vote for him at all hazards. A beautiful idea, to call on Democrats to ratify a nomination made to defeat their party. They may call, but Democrats will not come.

Game of the Seceders.

They declare they will break up the Union if Lincoln is elected President. Then they run a ticket in the North and South in order to promote the election of Lincoln.

☞ A Louisianian, at Vicksburg, Miss., heard some Seceders offering to bet $20,000 that Breckinridge would carry Kentucky by 20,000 majority. He pulled out the collaterals and the Seceders crawfished. He then offered to bet them $15,000 that Breckinridge would not carry the State by 15,000 majority. This they agreed to accept, but afterwards backed. The Louisianian says now he would bet them that Breckinridge can not carry Kentucky at all.

☞ The Breckinridge men in this State seem to gloat over the prospect of beating Douglas Suppose they succeeded. They are not green enough to suppose they can elect their candidate, and what good will it do them if they beat Douglas? The profit will not be theirs. Lincoln may thank them for the service they render him; but he will only bestow empty thanks. He has friends enough to hold all the offices without them.

☞ The Democracy of Jessamine are requested to meet in Nicholasville, on Monday, the 9th, to ratify the nomination of Senator Douglas, of Illinois, and Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia, the candidates of the National Democracy for President and Vice President of the United States. Also, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Louisville, on the 19th inst.

☞ Senator Bright, of Indiana, admits, says the Cincinnati Gazette, that Indiana will go for Lincoln No doubt he is ready to admit it and promote it. He would give the casting vote, if he had it, in favor of the Black Republicans, and thus testify his devotion to the South. Bright's admissions now are his own. The Democracy of Indiana don't allow his admissions to stand.

☞ The Administration and its organ are out for Breckinridge. Thank God for that. That's one weight taken off the Democratic party, which is enough to kill a dozen parties. On the other hand, the Secession ticket is rather light, and tied to the millions of dead weight in the Administration and its organ, it will never move, much less run.

☞ Why not go to the Frankfort Convention on the 18th" we are asked.

First—No fair representation of the counties can be had. There is not time.

Second—We are not going into a Convention with men who have left the party and made a nomination to beat it; for we would not support one of them if he were nominated.

☞ Democrats who expect the party to live hereafter, will be on hand to night for Douglas and Johnson. They are the nominees of the party, and if they are not supported in the South, the Democrats of the free States will set up for themselves, and leave the party South as a mere sectional faction.

☞ We are assured, by a Bell and Everett man, from Louisiana, that that State is certain for Douglas, as the masses of the people are for him, while such men as Soule, Wickliffe, Parham, Colman and others of equal strength are giving him their earnest support.

☞ The Danites in Illinois fired cannon in Chicago over the election of Breckinridge and Lane. It is said the Black Republicans helped to buy the powder. They ought to have bought it all—the scoundrels. The ticket is put up for their benefit.

☞ Let every Democrat, who intends to stand by the antecedents and creed of his party against disorganizers and disunionists, attend at the Courthouse to-night, and hear the speakers and swell the column for Douglas and Johnson.

☞ E. A. Graves, Esq., will make a speech on political affairs next Saturday, at one o'clock, at South Loretto Let him have a large audience. Mr. Graves is a sound Democrat for the regular nominees, Douglas and Johnson.

☞ Burnett, ex-member of Congress, is an aspirant for the Clerkship of the Court of Appeals. He belongs to the Seceders from the Democratic party, and can't look to it to elect him

☞ Our readers will find in our columns good news from the counties. Let them speak on. We appeal from officeholders and officeseekers to the people.

Letter from Green County.

GREEN COUNTY, KY., July 1, 1860.

MESSRS. HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.:

Gentlemen: We are getting mighty tired of Conventions—that is, of the modern sort—still we have, I suppose, to be bored with another on the 18th inst. The thing is getting rather low down about here. Formerly it was the plan and means adopted to obtain the honest and fair expression of the people's will; but now it is the mere machine for political tricksters and wire-workers to get into notice. We are tired with this farce. The order has, however, gone forth, and the meeting will be attempted; but it is manifest that not one-tenth of the voters of the State will be there represented. A few counties around Frankfort and Lexington, in Mr. Breckinridge's district, will be represented Resolutions, cut and dried for the occasion, will be introduced, and, of course, adopted, indorsing the nomination of Mr Breckinridge: and then it will be heralded forth to the people, who, of course, are too ignorant to know anything, except what the leaders tell them, that the State has spoken out for Breckinridge, &c.

Political trickstering of this sort is becoming too common and contemptible to be any longer tolerated. The little tricks in the late National Convention, resorted to by pettifogging officeholders and broken-down political quacks, to mar the peace of the Democratic party, and to defeat the fair and honest expression of the people's will for Douglas, is too palpable to argue about, and will have no other effect than to add to his strength, and fan into a flame the fever that is now raging throughout the country for him. And now we are to be called to order, I suppose, to await the mandate to be sent forth on the 18th instant. But it won't do—the fact is fixed—the hearts and minds of the people are fixed upon Douglas: it is manifest destiny, and it will be a hard task to divert the people from their determination to support him. Yet with this unmistakable evidence of the feeling of the people for Douglas, we have the humiliating reflection that John C. Breckinridge, one Kentucky's Idol, one that we were proud to claim as the honor, should so far forget his dignity and his high position as to come down and suffer himself to be made a cat's paw and tool for such a man as W. L. Yancey, an avowed Disunionist, and to accept the nomination of a little bogus, Disunion Convention. This is truly strange, and can be accounted for only in one of two ways. Either the cash is crazy for the office or he has not firmness enough to think and act for himself. It is said there is but one step between the sublime and the ridiculous, and we think J. C. Breckinridge has taken it in double quick time.

Dr. D. P. White, our indefatigable and talented representative in the Charleston and Baltimore Conventions, by his manly, straightforward, correct and independent course in those Conventions, has endeared himself to his constituents, and they will greet him with the welcome plaudit of "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," &c.

Respectfully, GEET RILEY.

☞ Nearly all the Democratic papers in Missouri have run up the regular flag. A California correspondent of the St. Louis Republican writes:

There is a large majority here for Douglas Mr. Breckinridge has a good many friends, natives of Kentucky, who regard him with partiality in several respects, but who do not like the idea of his allowing his name to be used for the advancement of the aims of Yancey and that man's fellow-Disunionists. All the prominent men of the county are for Douglas."

LOUISIANA.—The Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says

Hon. Miles Taylor, and others, from Louisiana, are confident Douglas will carry that State by ten thousand majority, over the heads of Breckinridge and Lane and Slidell & Co., all combined.

THE BOLTING TICKET NO. 2.—Democratic papers in this city support Douglas and Johnson, and repudiate the Disunion ticket.

Every Democratic paper in Indiana supports Douglas and Johnson, and repudiates the Disunion ticket.

In Missouri four-fifths of the Democratic papers support Douglas and Johnson, and repudiate the Disunion ticket.

In Michigan every Democratic paper supports Douglas and Johnson.

In Ohio every Democratic paper, except the Danite paper at Cleveland, hoists the U. S. Marshal, supports Douglas and Johnson, and repudiates the Disunion ticket.

In New York but one Democratic paper of influence (Fernando Wood's) has raised the Disunion banner.

☞ The Democracy of Hancock [illegible], had a splendid meeting and ratification meeting to-day, the nominations of Douglas and Johnson. Speeches were made by Governor Law, Democratic nominee for Congress, James M. Shackelford, Esq., Charles Darnell, Esq., Judge Hosier, A. T. Whittenberg, A. S. Gavitt, Sr. Wilford, and others, endorsing the Democracy to stand firmly by Douglas and Johnson, the regular nominees of the party. From every appearance the Democracy of the First District will be found to a man in support of Douglas and Johnson.

ATTENTION—Let our friends turn out in their strength to-night to the ratification meeting of Douglas and Johnson, the Democratic standard-bearers, at the canvass of 1860. There will be a number of speeches made on the occasion. This is an occasion demanding the co-operation of every friend of the Union—of every one who prefers Douglas to Lincoln. In the hour of the Black Republican peril, or Breckinridge, the candidate of the Disunionists.

☞ At the great meeting of the Democracy of Russell County, Kentucky, at Russell Hollow, last Friday evening, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Russell county, having renewed their allegiance to the doctrine of Non-intervention, by re-endorsing the Cincinnati Platform as the basis of the National Convention, held in Baltimore, have properly represented the sentiments of the party in Boston, and their action meets with our hearty approval.

Resolved, That the nomination by the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, of Illinois, as our candidate for President, is in accordance with the wishes of nine-tenths of the party in this city and State, therefore we cordially indorse the same, and will give our best and united efforts to secure his election.

Resolved, That no better nomination could be made for Vice President than that of Hon. Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia. His patriotism, his love for the Union, and his sterling integrity, entitle him to the favorable consideration of the Democratic party, and worthy to be associated in the coming contest with the People's candidate—the intellectual giant of the West.

Resolved, That Douglas and Johnson are the regularly nominated candidates of the party, and as such are entitled to the cordial support of every man who claims to be a Democrat, and we must regard those who voluntarily withdraw from the party and bolt its nominations, as enemies, and unworthy of confidence in the future.

Resolved, That we are opposed to agitators and disunionists at the North, and secessionists and disunionists of the South, and all who sympathize with them, and will at all times and under all circumstances fight for the right and oppose the wrong, come from what quarter it may.

☞ A difficulty has arisen among the stockholders of the Kentucky State road, Mr. Breckinridge's organ, at Lexington. It appears that a majority are for Mr. Douglas, as their first choice, and that the chief [illegible] agreement is not confined to a single accordant with their wishes. A meeting is called for next Saturday, at twenty o'clock, to take decided steps in the matter of determining whether it will support Mr Breckinridge or go with the true and national choice of the party.

☞ The Ohio statesman is delighted at the Baltimore secession "We are now purified of the fire eaters and [illegible], who were nothing but dead weights upon the party. Our course is now straightforward and clear, and all signs portend a great and glorious victory."

☞ The Republicans nominated a candidate to elect him President. The Opposition South nominated Bell and Everett in order to keep together and wait for opportunities. Breckinridge was nominated to beat his own party.

☞ The Memphis Appeal hoists the Democratic flag—Douglas and Johnson—is dexterously in the hope the Seceders will see their folly, but feeling sure of being right, it goes ahead with them for the regular nominees.

☞ The confession of Harden, the New Jersey minister, who sent his wife to Heaven by arsenic, proves him a hackneyed wretch From such ministers of grace defend us.

☞ A daily Democratic paper to support Douglas and Johnson, is to be immediately commenced in New York city.

Democratic Republican General Committee.

At a meeting of the Democratic Republican General Committee of the City of Albany, held on the 28th inst., pursuant to previous notice, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we regard the nomination of Stephen A. Douglas, by the Baltimore Convention, as not only in accordance with the established law of Democratic Conventions, and in all respects binding upon Democrats, but as reflecting the overwhelming sentiment of the Democratic masses in all sections of the Union.

Resolved, That we recognise in the platform adopted by the assembled representatives of the Democracy, the true and permanent creed of the party, confirmed already by the votes of the people, and destined to be affirmed and established in the policy of the country so long as the Union of the States endures.

Resolved, That we repel equally the menaces of the Abolitionists of the North, and of the Disunionists of the South, who seek in Congressional intervention an instrumentality to aid them in carrying out their extreme views and carrying into effect their fatal fanaticisms. That for ourselves we take our stand upon the old Democratic ground, the recognition of the right of independent political communities to self-government, and an unqualified and uncompromising opposition to [illegible]

Resolved, That we, the Democracy of Spencer county, assembled in mass meeting, do hereby reaffirm the platform of principles adopted in 1856, by the National Democracy in Convention assembled at Cincinnati, and heartily endorsed at Charleston and Baltimore, in the recent National Convention, as the true and only platform upon which the Democratic party springs from our [illegible] and is a National party, every where and under all circumstances the Union, against every form of attack and opposition, and we stand by the party now, because, in addition to [illegible] upon our support, we believe it to be the only power which can arrest the progress of that sectional movement in the North, whose success would be apparently destructive of our national institutions and of our nationality and fraternity as a people.

Resolved, That, in our deliberate judgment, the secession [illegible] delegates from the several Democratic Conventions, and then, with the help of the Seceders, nominate candidates in opposition to the National Democracy, emanated from those who are actuated solely by motives inimical to the Union, and desire its dissolution, and who know that the National Democracy, while united, presented an impregnable barrier to the success of their unnatural schemes: and it is, therefore, the duty of all Democrats, and all other patriotic citizens, to meet and combat fearlessly this latest and most insidious manifestations of that spirit of disunion which Andrew Jackson met and vanquished, and to which the Democratic party stands in a position of eternal hostility.

6. That we believe the preservation of the Union to depend upon the complete cessation of sectional controversy at once and forever.

7. That the only true safeguard against sectional agitation is the final and permanent establishment of the great and saving doctrine of absolute non-intervention by Congress in regard to slavery, anywhere, or under any circumstances whatever, and the utter abandonment of all attempts to procure Congressional legislation on that subject, whether such attempts proceed from the North or the South. Come whence they may, they are in their tendency all subversive of the peace and [illegible] destructive of the spirit of forbearance which should ever [illegible] together as a united people.

8. The overwhelming conviction is, that our beloved Union is now seriously imperiled by the acts of fanatics in both sections to carry out their respective extreme views; and we declare that the only available protection to the country in this present crisis is a return to that safe and conservative party which has [illegible] and faithfully proclaimed the principle of non-intervention by Congress with slavery in Territories, or in the District of Columbia."

That the principles we have just set forth are sound and have been faithfully upheld by Stephen A. Douglas; and he is, therefore, entitled to the earnest support of every man who holds to those principles, and of every man who values his country's peace more than party success. For him we can and will invoke the suffrages of all the friends, of whatever party heretofore, who believe with us that the time has fully come to rebuke and extinguish forever the spirit of sectional agitation, and to light anew the fires of devotion to the Constitution and the Union.

10. That we approve of and indorse the action of each district delegation in both the Charleston and Baltimore Conventions, and of other delegates from Kentucky who remained in the Convention and aided in making said nominations; and that, in our opinion they have correctly represented the just sentiments of the Democratic party in the Fifth Congressional District and of the State of Kentucky.

11. That every Democrat in Marion county who approves of the nomination of S. A. Douglas and H. V. Johnson, made at Baltimore by the National Democratic party of the United States, be appointed delegates to attend a State Convention to be held in Louisville on early day to take into consideration the condition of the Democratic party of Kentucky, and to effect a general organization of the party throughout Kentucky, and to make such nominations as may be deemed necessary.

12. That we are for B. R. Bulling for Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

13. That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Lebanon Democrat and Louisville Democrat, and other Democratic papers friendly to the State.

The meeting then adjourned.

BEN SPALDING, President.

Democratic Meeting in Spencer County.

DOUGLAS AND JOHNSON INTERVENTION SUSTAINED.

At a meeting of the Democracy of Spencer county, at the Courthouse in Taylorsville, on Monday, July 2d, 1860, on motion, Thos. J. Barker was called to the Chair, and Josiah Davis was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman having explained the object of the meeting, the Convention was then addressed by Messrs. Welling, Cochran, Veech, McKee and others, after which the following resolutions were presented to the meeting, and were adopted by a vote of [illegible]:

1. Resolved, That we, the Democracy of Spencer county, assembled in mass meeting, do hereby reaffirm the platform of principles adopted in 1856, by the National Democracy in Convention assembled at Cincinnati, and reaffirmed at Charleston and Baltimore, in the recent National Convention, as the true and only platform upon which the Democratic party springs from our [illegible] and is a National party, every where and under all circumstances the Union, against every form of attack and opposition, and we stand by the party now, because, in addition to [illegible] upon our support, we believe it to be the only power which can arrest the progress of that sectional movement in the North, whose success would be apparently destructive of our national institutions and of our nationality and fraternity as a people.

2. That, in our deliberate judgment, the secession [illegible] delegates from the several Democratic Conventions, and then, with the help of the Seceders, nominate candidates in opposition to the National Democracy, emanated from those who are actuated solely by motives inimical to the Union, and desire its dissolution, and who know that the National Democracy, while united, presented an impregnable barrier to the success of their unnatural schemes: and it is, therefore, the duty of all Democrats, and all other patriotic citizens, to meet and combat fearlessly this latest and most insidious manifestations of that spirit of disunion which Andrew Jackson met and vanquished, and to which the Democratic party stands in a position of eternal hostility.

3. That we believe the preservation of the Union to depend upon the complete cessation of sectional controversy at once and forever.

4. That the only true safeguard against sectional agitation is the final and permanent establishment of the great and saving doctrine of absolute non-intervention by Congress in regard to slavery, anywhere, or under any circumstances whatever, and the utter abandonment of all attempts to procure Congressional legislation on that subject, whether such attempts proceed from the North or the South. Come whence they may, they are in their tendency all subversive of the peace and [illegible] destructive of the spirit of forbearance which should ever [illegible] together as a united people.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR SHERIFF OF JEFFERSON COUNTY,

W. A. ELLIS.

FOR CLERK OF COURT OF APPEALS,

R. R. BOLLING.

LOUISVILLE, KY.:

FRIDAY MORNING ..... JULY 6, 1860.

☞ The members of the Committee of Arrangements for the Ratification Meeting to-night, are requested to meet at the Democratic office at 7½ o'clock this morning.

RATIFICATION MEETING.—To-night the Democracy of Jefferson county will meet at the courthouse for the purpose of ratifying the nominations of those champions of Democracy, Douglas and Johnson. Delegations from the bordering counties will be present, and eloquent and able speeches will be made by various gentlemen. We are happy to announce that Gen. T. B. Flournoy, of Arkansas, will address the meeting.

THE SENTIMENT OF KENTUCKY.—The news from the counties is cheering. Everywhere through out the State the PEOPLE are vindicating their Democracy by repudiating the Secession and their ticket. There is no mistaking the fact that a large majority of the Democratic party of Kentucky prefer the Statesman of the West before all other candidates in or out of the contest. In Lexington, the home of Breckinridge, the Douglas men outnumber his personal friends and the Secessionists together.

The Three Platforms.

The three platforms, on the subject of slavery in the Territories, may be thus concisely and yet truly stated:

REPUBLICAN

Intervention by Congress against slavery in the Territories. In other words, intervention by Congress to prevent the people having slavery if they want it.

DISUNION

Intervention by Congress for slavery in the Territories. In other words, intervention by Congress to make the people have slavery when they don't want it.

DEMOCRATIC

Non-intervention by Congress with slavery in the Territories, either to establish, prohibit or protect. In other words, to leave to the people of the Territories, when organized communities, to have slavery or not, as they think best, subject to be controlled in the matter by no outside interference.

Which will sensible and patriotic people choose to rally on? There is but one for such persons, and that is the Democratic.

SENATOR DOUGLAS.—We learn from Clifton Springs, says the Rochester N. Y. Union, where the mother of Senator Douglas resides, that he is expected there to call upon her next week, on his way homeward from Washington. It is stated that this lady was in Palmyra on a visit when she received intelligence that her son had been nominated for the Presidency.

☞ Some misguided Kentuckians in Washington have formed a Breckinridge missionary society. We print the names of the philanthropists: Col. D. R. McNair, President; I. N. Oliver, Vice-President; Phil. T. Allen, Treasurer; J. N. Shepperd, Recording Secretary; and James C. Currie, Corresponding Secretary. Of course they are all officeholders.

☞ The Democracy of Henry county held a large and influential meeting at New Castle on Monday, and indorsed the nominations of Douglas and Johnson, condemned the factious course of Mr. Breckinridge and the Seceders, and rebuking Leach, the recreant delegate, for his desertion of Democratic principles and a Democratic National Convention.

PERSONAL.—The eloquent Hon. T. B. Flournoy, of Arkansas, was at the Galt House yesterday. He will speak at the ratification meeting to-night. He is an able and effective speaker, and the Democrats of Louisville earnestly desire that he will address them.

☞ Messrs. Bligh and Gallagher arrested a couple of fellows in the mailboat yesterday, for trying to whip everybody on board. They took them to jail, but had a nice time of it. The fellows fought and done their best to get away, but it was no go. Whenever Bligh and Gallagher send for a fellow, he is bound to come.

TWO MEN SHOT.—Sunday evening last, at Galloway's Station, in Fayette county, William Sunsing was shot with a double barrel gun by J. M. Abel. Sunsing died in a short time. His son, who was with him, was also shot by Abel, and it is thought he cannot live. We have not the particulars. Abel has been arrested.

☞ The commencement exercises of Indiana University, at Bloomington, take place next week, beginning with the Baccalaureate Sermon on Sunday. President Lesley will be invested with the Presidential office by Gov. Willard.

TO THE RESCUE!—Democrats, to the rescue! Vindicate the fair fame of Old Kentucky from the foul stain of disunionism cast upon her escutcheon by the nomination of a son of Kentucky upon a Secession-Disunion platform.

☞ On the Fourth we observed hundreds of Douglas flags about the streets, but not a single one for Breck and Lane. We would really like to see what sort of colors the Disunionists sail under.

☞ The man, R M Johnson, who cast the vote of Minnesota in the Seceders' Convention was not a delegate at all. There were other votes of the same kind in that Convention.

☞ John Wentworth and other Black Republican leaders are advising the Republicans to furnish the money to organize a Breckinridge party in every county in Indiana.

GRAND RALLY.—Let no true Democrat stay away from the ratification meeting to-night. Let there be inside a demonstration that will carry terror to the hearts of the Disunionists. COME ONE, COME ALL!

STEAMER.—On the last trip of the steamboat Superior to Cincinnati, a vote was taken with the following result: Douglas, 120; Bell, 87; Breckinridge, 35; Lincoln, 21.

SALE OF MULES.—Mr. W. P. Talbott, of Fayette county, sold, a few days ago, to G. B. Mann & Co., 20 two year old mules at $200 per head.

☞ The Detroit Free Trees contains a call signed by five hundred of the young men in that city to form a Democratic Union Douglas Club.

☞ The Kansas City Journal of Commerce states that Douglas will get nineteen-twentieths of the Democratic vote of that city.

☞ There is but one paper in Ohio for Breck and Lane, and it is famishing, and will cease to exist long before the election.

☞ The assistants of the Street Inspectors is directed to the filthy condition of Market street in the vicinity of Wenzel.

☞ The Breckinridge organ in Missouri is the St. Louis Democrat, the well known Black Republican Abolition organ.

☞ The New Orleans Crescent deserts Breckinridge and goes for Bell and Everett. Rats will leave a sinking ship.

☞ Last evening a rain came up from the south, cooling the heated air and rendering it extremely agreeable.

☞ We give up a large portion of our space to political matters. They are of absorbing interest, however.

☞ Captain J. H. Greenway has organized a company of men at Glasgow, Kentucky, for the State Guard.

☞ Hon. Daniel Mace, of Indiana, formerly a Republican, has declared for Douglas and Johnson.

☞ Every Democratic paper in Michigan supports Douglas and Johnson. There is no bolting by the Democratic press, and we do not believe there will be any by individual Democrats. There may be here and there an individual whose preferences were not for Douglas, but all such, we are sure, will yield, as it has been their habit to yield, to the authority of the regular organization of the party. We were going to say that it is astonishing—but after all it is not—how the nomination of Douglas is received by the people. They have desired it, as they have never desired any Presidential nomination before, and it is only natural that their exhilaration over the event should be excessive.

☞ We learn from the Bulletin, of yesterday, that Sam Hellugh and four Germans were killed in an affray at a picnic below the city, on the Fourth. We have made inquiry, but can find no particulars concerning it. We think it originated from an affray that occurred near New Albany, in which three men were cut and two badly beaten, but none dead. Sam probably may have been in the affray.

ST. JOSEPH COLLEGE.—The annual commencement exercises of this institution came off on the 4th at Bardstown, and was largely attended. The order of exercises was as follows:

Music, by the Philharmonic Society.
DISCOURSES,
Texas ..... By John B. Hood.
Freedom ..... By Thos. Carpenter.
The Knights of St. John ..... By James J. Dugan.
Music.
Modern Chivalry ..... By Joseph K. Taylor.
On the Study and Love of Poetry ..... By Andrew D. Duffy.
Music.
Conferring of Degrees.
Music.
Distribution of Premiums.
Music.

The orations were of a high order of talent, and that of Mr. Cecil is represented to us as having been of unusual ability.

GREAT BOOK SALE.—The largest collection of books ever offered for sale in this market is now on exhibition at the auction rooms of S. G. Henry & Co., and the sale of them will begin to-night at 8 o'clock. The assortment embraces old books and new, rare books and common, great books and small, dear books and cheap, and, indeed, books of every variety, sort or character, whether in history, biography, memoirs, travels, voyages, excursions, discoveries, morals, religion, education, science, art, literature, fiction, poetry, or miscellany. The collection embraces numerous valuable periodicals, dictionaries, and encyclopedias. There never was such a library offered at auction in our city, and we advise our citizens to go to-day and make choice of the books they should buy to-night. There are books there to suit the taste and meet the wants of our scholars, our lawyers, our doctors, our editors, our merchants, our mechanics, our fathers, our mothers, our children, and, in a word, everybody. There may never be such another opportunity of supplying the wants of our citizens in the way of good and valuable books that everybody ought to have.

☞ A young woman, named Mary Johnston, attempted to poison herself at Cincinnati, on Tuesday, but medical assistance saved her life. The story of Miss Johnston is a strange but pitiful one. She is apparently about sixteen years of age, and possessed of much refinement. She says she has a fortune of sixty thousand dollars vested in her own name in Clarksville, Tennessee, where she has been attending school. There she became acquainted with a young man named Waite, who abducted her from the school, married her and took her to Cincinnati. Here, she says, she placed eight thousand dollars in his possession, when he basely abandoned her. She tells her story with all the earnestness of truth, and none who hear her can disbelieve her.

☞ Police matters are dull. Judge Johnston having graciously and patriotically pardoned those delinquents who fell by the wayside while celebrating, provided they were not too obstreperous in their demonstrations of attachment to the Union. The following cases were unpardonable, however: John Morris, lying tight on sidewalk: discharged. Jas. Ryan, drunk: discharged. Lawrence Dodlan was two-thirds drunk, and attempted to commit a rape: he promised never to do it again save on the 4th of July. John Jaas, a musician, had so little harmony in his soul as to abuse his wife: held to bail. John Fisher obtained a peace warrant vs. Oscar Sweeny: bail in $100 to appear. The Grand Jury is ordered to meet on the 20th of the present month.

FAIRMOUNT BARBECUE.—We take pleasure in announcing that John A. Hays will give a genuine old-fashioned Kentucky barbecue at Fairmount, two miles this side of Hays' Springs, in Jefferson county, Ky. This festival is arranged for Saturday, August 4th, preceding the election. Mr. Hays has had many years' experience in this sort of thing, and will see that the guests are properly cared for. Good music, dancing, and good cheer, and genuine hospitality and decorum will be the order of the day.

☞ Yesterday morning officer Bligh arrested a man who gave his name as W. C. Morrison, who says he hails from Bowling green, and is a negro trader, for stealing thirty dollars from a man at a boarding house where he lodged the previous night. The money was not found on his person, or all at least, but he had some new clothing which still retained the mark of the house that they were from. The officer accompanied the thief to the house and found that he had paid for them with the same money that was stolen. While he was making the purchase he stole a cravat, which was also found on him.

☞ Senator Douglas, says the Hartford Times, is on his way North, and it is said he will stop for a week or more at the Sachem's Head in Guilford, Conn.—a cool and popular seaside resort. It is also reported that Gen. Lane, the "National" Democratic candidate for Vice President, is booked for the same hotel, as are also Col. Orr, of South Carolina, the Hon. Erastus Corning, of New York, and others. Mr Scranton is especially favored—but he knows how to keep a hotel.

☞ The National Picnic at the New Albany Fair Grounds, yesterday, was a grand affair. It was gotten up by a committee of gentlemen for the purpose of raising funds to erect an iron railing around the monument, which has been built in honor of the brave Indianans who fell in the war with Mexico, and we were glad to see so many turn out and lend their aid to this commendable work. The exercises consisted of dancing, speaking, reading the Declaration of Independence, a mule race, and other amusing incidents. Everything passed off to the satisfaction of the visitors, and all enjoyed themselves exceedingly well.

☞ Merchants and others will bear in mind that the entire stock of groceries of Andrew Buchanan & Co. will be offered at auction on Wednesday, the 11th inst., at their house on Second street, between Main and the river. The stock is very large and all fresh.

☞ Furniture buyers will recollect Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co.'s special sale of parlor, dining room and chamber furniture, and dining-room and chamber chairs, this morning, Friday, at 10 o'clock, at their auction rooms. At 12 o'clock precisely, an elegant piano, voice of tuner's tools and machinery will also be sold, to which the special attention of the trade is called. A lot of second hand furniture will also be sold.

☞ The Louisville Medical Journal, for May, is published. Its contents are probably of interest and value to the medical profession. We believe this journal has taken a high rank among its contemporaries for the independence, ability and vigor of its editorial conduct.

☞ Independence Day passed civilly enough in town. In the suburbs picnic parties enjoyed themselves, and but for a dreadful fight, which is chronicled elsewhere, the day would have passed off pleasantly enough.

☞ Judge Goodloe commenced a special term of the Fayette Circuit Court for the trial of criminal and chancery cases on Monday last.

DOUGLAS AND JOHNSON IN NEW YORK.—Last Monday night a meeting was held at Tammany Hall, New York, to ratify the nominations of the National Democratic Convention, Douglas and Johnson. It was a brilliant and enthusiastic meeting. The class of Democrats were present whose influence is felt at elections. It being the first meeting in the city since the nominations, it created much interest, and was supposed it would indicate the popular sentiment in regard to the candidates. The speaking was excellent, both in the hall and on the stand outside. Among other speakers were T. W. Jones, of Tennessee, Senator Pugh, J. M. Gardner, Attorney General of Alabama, John Forsyth, of Mobile, R. C. Marshall, of Kentucky, T. M. Cavanaugh, of Maine, and half a score of others. When the meeting adjourned, an immense procession marched up Broadway to the Fifth Avenue Hotel and serenaded Judge Douglas. Arrived there, the band played several national and patriotic airs, three cheers were given for Douglas and Johnson, and when, soon after, Mr Douglas appeared with a number of friends, upon the mention the cheers became deafening. Mr. Douglas spoke as follows:

Fellow-Citizens: I return to you my most sincere thanks for this manifestation of your good feeling. It is gratifying to me to know that the united Democracy of New York feel the importance of the great principles now coming before the American people. [Cheers.] There is no place on the American continent where the citizens ought to be so enthusiastic to defend those great political principles which form the ground work of every republican government as in the Empire City, the city of New York. [Cheers.] While every citizen is in some degree called to the discharge of a peculiar class of duties, New York reaches to the limits of civilization, and carries on commerce with every part of the American flag may wave over American soil or American ships. [Cheers.]

The whole country is the theater of your commerce, your interest and your influence and you should sympathize with the people of the distant portions of the Republic as much as with those who are in more immediate contact with you. Hence my friends, I expected to find the Democracy of New York standing a unit [cries of "it will"] in favor of the great principles that bring unto the rights of the citizens of every State, and leave every State in the Union perfectly free to manage its own affairs and mind its own business and let its neighbors alone. [Cheers.]

My friends, I make my appearance in the balcony to-night for the purpose of making my acknowledgements of the compliment you have paid me, and not with a view of entering into a discussion of any political topic. It is the first time in my life that I have been placed in a position where I had to look out and see a fight without taking a hand in it. [Cheers and laughter.] I, however, shall feel none the less interest in this great political struggle, for I firmly believe the peace of the country and the perpetuity of the Union depend upon maintaining inviolate those great cardinal principles to which the great Democratic party now, as in former times, stands irrevocably pledged by its platform and its organization. [Immense cheering.] I rose to express my appreciation of my sincere thanks for your kindness on this occasion. [Loud cheers.]

Mr. Douglas then retired and Col. Michael Dahony and Mr. McSwyney made a few remarks.

RATIFICATION MEETING.—The National Democracy will meet at the Courthouse this evening to ratify the nominations of Douglas and Johnson for President and Vice-President. Eminent speakers will address the meeting, and among them Gen T. B Flournoy, of Arkansas; L. A. Graves, Judge Bullitt and others. Let every Democrat turn out.

COMMON COUNCIL.—There was a variety of business before this board last night. The most important was an ordinance levying a special tax of twenty-five cents on every one hundred dollars for ten years, payable annually, to be appropriated to sewering the city and bowldering the streets. It provides that the streets running east and west shall first be bowldered, and an equal amount of work to be done in each district annually. The streets running north and south then to be bowldered, observing the same provision as to districts. Action upon the ordinance was postponed until next meeting, and made the special order for nine o'clock. If it passes the two boards, it must then go to the people for ratification. In the present depleted condition of our treasury, it occurs to us to better action could now be taken to secure the greatly desired end.

Many ordinances ordering the grading and paving of streets in the lower end of the city were adopted; all having come from the Board of Aldermen. There being no remonstrance, we take it for granted the property holders are desirous of having that pleasure; but it was recurred to us that they have a stronger fancy for laying red bricks before vacant lots than ourselves. There was considerable discussion in relation to some of these; during which Col. Boone was particularly severe in his remarks—telling him, in the pithiest sort of talk, that he had to change his course if he desired respect. He also charged him with having taken undue advantages to get his ordinance to pay the police through the Council. Indeed, the Colonel talked so plainly that we thought we saw a fine opening for some fun, and a general feeling around for ink stands and specimens. But we were doomed to disappointment, parties didn't come to time; but wanted it to be understood that if such was repeated in public he followed by different consequences. By a majority of ayes it was agreed to go home, and meet again next Thursday night, July 12th, at 8 o'clock.

☞ The Democracy of Elkhart county, Indiana, held a most enthusiastic meeting at Goshen on the 26th. While the meeting was in progress, news of the nomination of Douglas was received, and it was at once indorsed with the utmost unanimity. Hon E. M. Chamberlain, who has been somewhat estranged from the Democracy for some years past, made an able and eloquent speech, full of the fire which characterized him in former years.

BARKED HIS SHIN.—A party of rowdies got upon one of the Louisville and Portland cars, on Wednesday afternoon, and began shouting at and insulting persons whom they chanced to pass on the way. Finally the car stopped to put out a gentleman and his family, when he was immediately assailed with abusive epithets by those on the top of the car. Being a man of spirit he seized a stone and threw it at the crowd with great force, striking one of the number on the leg, and inflicting a painful wound. As usual in such cases, the man injured was not guilty of any misconduct, but being caught in bad company he received the punishment which the others merited.

☞ A correspondent of the New Orleans True Delta says:

Every Louisianian, who has the prosperity of the Union at heart, and who is unwilling that the organization of the Democratic party shall be broken up, will rejoice when he reads the proceedings of the Baltimore Convention. Louisiana Democrats will find that their course, in selecting new delegates, was fully indorsed. They will find that the Convention places entire confidence in their honesty and patriotism. They expect to make Louisiana Democratic all over. Their delegates acted nobly, and should be sustained.

MARION RIFLE EXCURSION.—On the evening of the third of July the Marion Rifles, Major Woodruff commanding, went up to Charlestown Indiana landing, where they were met with vehicles and taken over to the city, where they proposed spending the Fourth. They were met by [illegible] and escorted to their quarters at Gray and Gibbs's hotels. In the morning they participated in a procession and proceeded to the fair grounds, where an oration was delivered by a gentleman from New Albany, and the Declaration of Independence was read by Mr. Bell. Not less than six thousand people were present and the best of feeling prevailed. All partook of an elegant dinner at the ground. In the evening fireworks and balls afforded plenty of amusement, and the Rifles returned yesterday, having enjoyed their trip hugely. Their drill.—Zounds!—paved the people immensely, and they leave behind them none but the kindest recollections. They are particularly commendable in their praises of the grace, beauty and courtesy of the ladies of Charlestown. That city the people are as hospitable as any in the world.

Letter from Lexington.

GRAND MILITARY AND CIVIC DISPLAY.

LEXINGTON KY. July 4 1860

GENTLEMEN: This has been truly a great day in the history of Lexington, and our citizens and others who were present, will long remember it with pleasure. There is, believe, an inclination common to all, to regard events of the past, if favorable or agreeable, with an interest amounting almost to reverence; and certainly every American, who properly appreciates our great principles, should feel that the day's doings of them may usher to our people this year fully equal the anniversary of [illegible] for eighty-four years ago our forefathers, in solemn council, declared the United States sovereign, independent States. Throwing off the bonds of allegiance, they dared the tyrant in the God of Battles, and pledged to achieve their country's freedom, or to die in the endeavor. With them, we can feel a thrill of patriotism on each anniversary of this day. May it ever be regarded as a national landmark—a time when [illegible] of brothers and [illegible] Many ever country shall have [illegible] as a the world [illegible] for perilous glory [illegible] because [illegible] may [illegible] and [illegible] country [illegible] heritage [illegible]

A BARBECUE IN GEORGIA.—A. H. STEPHENS AND SENATOR JOHNSON.—We take the following from the Boston Herald:

Governor Johnson has agreed to stump Georgia for the Douglas ticket. Arrangements are being made for a grand barbecue at Atlanta, Georgia, when the Democracy of that State will be addressed by Stephen A Douglas, Herschel V Johnson, Alexander H Stephens and other distinguished Democrats.

DEATH OF TRAIN.—We received the following dispatch last evening from Mr. C. H. Hoskins, of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railroad. It explains itself:

NEW ALBANY, July 5th.

One train this morning was detained three hours by the Ohio and Mississippi train with the Cincinnati mail. The St. Louis train is off the track eighteen miles west of Mitchell, and our train will wait for the St Louis mail which will not probably reach Mitchell until eleven o'clock, P. M.

C. H. HOSKINS.

☞ Those of our readers in want of fine furniture will bear in mind Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale this morning, at his auction rooms. The lot is desirable, and, as usual with him, will be closed out regardless of price. He also sells the balance of Mr Pratt's stock of Jewelry, tools, show cases, and iron safe. There are many beautiful gold sets in the lot, which will be sold as heretofore without reserve.

☞ Yesterday was comfortably cool, as compared with former days of the week.

☞ According to all accounts that excellent corps, the Citizens Guard, had a right jovial time at Lexington. Besides the genial courtesy of the Chasseurs, the Guard acknowledge with gratitude the liberal hospitalities of R. M. Curd, Esq., R. C. Morgan, Esq., James Harper, Esq., and the hospitable ladies of Lexington. To the latter alone the Guards owe a debt of gratitude. On our part we assure the ladies that they entertained gentlemen who appreciated their favors.

The Political Skies in Indiana.

For the Douglas and Union Democracy of Indiana, the political skies are all right; for the Secessionists not bright. The Louisville Enquirer thus talks:

The word will speedily go abroad that our noble leader in the gubernatorial battle, the gallant Hendricks, has proclaimed for Douglas and Johnson; Parish and the balance of the State ticket will do the same. The lion-hearted Willard is already in the field. The clarion voice of Joe McDonald will soon be heard on every hill-top and in every valley, rallying the faithful to the Douglas standard. The eloquent Dunham and the gallant Walker will soon be before the people. A host will follow. When such a man as Vorhees, Banning, Eddy, Buskirk, Wallace, Devlin, Ryan, Ray, and English, to say nothing of scores of able men in our own district, take position, it will be speedily forgotten that there was a secession at Baltimore—or if thought of, it will only be to thank God that the incubus of disunion has been sloughed off from the party.

UNION BETWEEN THE DOUGLAS AND ENQUIRER MEN.—The Hon. John Forsyth, of Alabama, made a speech at Philadelphia Saturday night, in which he said:

They, (the Breckinridge men), want to compromise. It is the most impudent thing I ever heard of. After they have bully-ragged us after they have threatened us; after they have tried to make a minority govern the majority; and, after their defeat, they ask us to compromise! Compromise means mutual concession. They have got nothing to concede; they have nothing to give. The only compromise we can make with them is, that they shall lay down their arms, confess their sins, sit upon the stool of repentance, and vote for Stephen A. Douglas. [Great applause.] If we do compromise, we cannot compromise with the Breckinridge faction or the Black Republican party; but there is a Union party we can compromise with, and that is the Bell and Everett party. That is the true object in view we have—to preserve this government and not to allow it to be sacrificed to the passions and ambition of misguided men. If there be a compromise, you may take my word for it, there will be—with your approbation and the voice of the American people, and nowhere more emphatically than in Alabama—the triumphant election of the champion of popular sovereignty.

CHINESE SALUTATIONS.—The salutation between two Chinamen when they meet, consists in each clasping and shaking his own hands, instead of each other's, and bowing very profoundly, almost to the ground, several times. A question more common than "How do you do?" is, "Have you eaten rice?" This being the great staple article of food throughout the empire, and forming the chief and indispensable part of every meal, it is taken for granted that if you have "eaten rice" you are well. Etiquette requires that in conversation, each should compliment the other and everybody belonging to him, in the most laudatory style; and depreciate himself, with all pertaining to him, to the lowest possible point. The following is no exaggeration though not the precise words:

"What is your honorable name?"

"My insignificant appellation is Wong."

"Where is your magnificent palace?"

"My contemptible hut is at Suchau."

"How many are your illustrious children?"

"My vile, worthless brats are five."

"How is the health of your distinguished spouse?"

"My mean, good for-nothing old woman is well."

MAINE TO BE REDEEMED.—The news from Maine is most cheering. At the late Democratic State Convention in Portland, consisting of seven hundred and fifty delegates, the nomination of Douglas and John-on was ratified with entire unanimity and amid the the greatest enthusiasm. The Portland correspondent of the Boston Herald says:

The delegates from all parts of the State bring encouraging news of Democratic conversions. They say that the watchwords "Douglas" and "Popular Sovereignty" have revived the hopes while they have strengthened the han is of the party, and that it seems as if the old times were come again. Voters are coming back in flocks, full of joy to find themselves able again to be Democrats. Those members of the Northern press who have deserted the National Standard, are denounced by the party in terms more earnest than polite, from the sea coast to the backwoods.

☞ It is said that Buchanan's father was a Tory in the Revolutionary war, and that the Continental Congress ordered the confiscation of his property. It is also reported that the elder Buchanan instilled into the mind of his son Jeemes the utmost hatred to every form of a Republican Government. He also required the young man to pledge himself to break down this Republic if it should ever be in his power so to do. Jeemes is now endeavoring to fulfill his pledge, but he will fail, and then, the sublime language of the distinguished Snuff-box Bowtin, when he made the reception speech to Ex-President Martin Van Buren, when he said, "Allow me, sir, to congratulate you upon your retirement from the Presidential chair, with the unanimous consent of the American people," will be very appropriate and in place, so far as he is concerned.—St. Louis Bulletin.

WHITE WIVES AMONG THE INDIANS.—The Chatfield (Minnesota) Democrat, of June 2, says two white women are living at the agencies with Indian husbands. One of them, Mrs. Renville, came from Illinois about eighteen months ago, and, after a vigorous courtship, won the consent of her dusky mate and married him that she might elevate the race. She is now teaching the Indian girls to bake and do household labor generally, and her husband is said to be quite proud of her. The other, Mrs. Otherday, became enamored of one of the braves at Washington, where he had gone with others of his tribe to complete a treaty, and she followed him to his home on the prairie.

THE ENGLISH LAW OF EVIDENCE.—Lord Brougham, on whose zeal and activity in all good causes advancing age seems to make no impression, and who has apparently as clear a head at more than four score as he had at forty, is now seeking to add one more to the long list of valuable reforms for which English laws is indebted to his exertion. He has just introduced a bill into the House of Lords for the admission of a wife's evidence in favor of her husband, and of a husband's in favor of his wife, and of the prisoner's in his own favor in criminal cases. It is simply a principle already in force in civil procedure, both in many States of the Union and in England.

☞ We admire the bold, frank, and decided manner in which the Louisville Democrat the Douglas organ in Kentucky is conducting the canvass. The editor does not stop to calculate the chances in the expression of his opinions, but speaks right out the convictions of his judgment. He seems to be perfectly conscious of the justice of his cause, and thinking himself right, goes straight ahead.—Lexington Observer & Reporter.

BEAUTIFUL SPRING GOODS FOR GENTLEMEN'S CLOTHING.—We invite attention to the card of Mr. Swain, merchant tailor, Masonic Temple, Fourth street. This gentleman has on hand a stock of the most beautiful French, English and American cloths, cassimeres and vestings, designed especially for the spring styles. The cutting and designing department of this celebrated establishment is under well known and artistic cutters, and a guarantee to give entire satisfaction is awarded to each gentleman who patronizes the establishment. The public are invited to call and examine his stock of goods for coats, pants and vests, before making their selections. Fit, fashion, fabric and price warranted to give entire satisfaction.

FINE CIGARS.—We would advise merchants, hotels, bars, and dealers generally, who want the very best and finest flavored cigar extant, to call at Mr. J. D'Urso's, on Main street, second door below the Louisville Hotel, and procure a supply of the Garibaldi brand. From the increasing demand from all parts of the country, we would judge they are becoming a great favorite with the lovers of the weed. Mr. D'Urso also keeps the best and fullest assortment of confections, foreign fruits, &c., to be found in the city.

PROFESSIONAL SLAUGHTER.

THE ONLY SAFETY FOR THE SICK.

When the Emperor of China issues an important decree, he usually appends to it these words—"Respect this. A vermilion edict." The style in which the great guns of the medical profession deliver their opinions, is little less authoritive and dictatorial. It is of no use to remonstrate with them. Byron, in his last sickness, told his medical adviser—medical dictator, is the more appropriate term) that he was bleeding him to death, but the remark was unheeded; and the lancet was used again and again, until the professional homicide was completed. We verily believe that thousands of sick persons are killed every year by the various modes of violent depletion in vogue among "regular" practitioners. This murderous work cannot, we would fain hope, last much longer. A salutary revolution is in progress. Since the introduction of Holloway's celebrated Pills and Ointment into this country, a new light has broken in upon us. We have begun to discover that the disordered action of the great internal organs can be regulated and health restored, without a resort to mineral poisons. That instead of mercury, which is the end with others "marrow, bones and all," Holloway's Pills, which are exclusively vegetable, are all sufficient for the cure of liver complaint, disorders of the bowels, and all diseases arising from indigestion. We have also found out that scrofula, cutaneous eruptions, and cancers, abscesses and all kinds of ulcers, heal and are radically cured by Holloway's ointment. The reign of calomel, caustic and other medicinal destructives, draws to a close, and we may possibly live to see the day when Holloway's life-sustaining remedies will be the alpha and omega of the people's materia medica.

RIVER NEWS.

FRIDAY MORNING ..... JULY 6, 1860

Yesterday was another hot day, the mercury ... upon the nine-o'clock.

The river was ... last evening, with ... feet two inches water in the canal. In the main ... evening.

By noon to-day ... yesterday, we learn that the river was rising at the ...

At the mouth the river was ... in the north-east, hourly rising at noon yesterday, ... inches.

On Tuesday the river was swelling; at Wheeling, with four feet water in the channel, at Pittsburg, with seven, the Upper Ohio all swelling slowly.

The below or little Kanawha steadily ... with four feet water on the most prominent bar.

The Cumberland was falling ... inches water at Ingraham's shoals, ... race track.

Freights continue to arrive freely at Cairo ... and Ohio river boats, and a favorable ... weather desired.

We learn that the Diana ... here ... Nov. from Cairo.

The Memphis Appeal of Tuesday says that on Monday morning the Republic arrived there with the hull of the Eclipse, for Messrs. Morton & Co., who will have it ready for the ... [illegible] ... their wharf-boat. It will make a superb wharf-boat, being of large dimensions. She was towed down to the sawmill at Fort Pickering, where she will be made ready for business in about two weeks.

The Petersburg Journal of yesterday says that "the river continues to recede slowly, and last evening there was four feet two inches in the channel. The Sir Lancelot from Louisville, Hazel Dell from Nashville, and Lancaster from Wheeling, arrived yesterday. The Lancaster was receiving a little freight, which is the first shipping that has been done for several days past. The ranger in regard to the heavy rains up the Allegheny, which we mentioned yesterday, is undoubtedly correct, as that stream has risen some twelve or fifteen inches during the last twenty-four hours. It rained very hard here as of yesterday, and the indications had recently been favorable to a continuance of it. The Hastings, as Maine have been enabled, under the circumstances, present rise, to get off ... Master Tuley, whose ... had been stalking for some ... days."

BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

GUERIN & BRO.—Those in want of Lamboine dress goods will call upon this house as I examine their choice styles small figured organdies and lawns, which they are selling at the lowest prices. Robes in three to eleven flounces, lace mantles, white goods, embroideries, and domestics of the best makes. [apl8]

Splendid Building Lot for Sale.

I offer for sale one of the most beautiful building lots in the city, fifty feet front on a handsome and high-toned street, and running back 200 feet to a 20 foot alley. The neighborhood is improving very rapidly, and to any one who wishes to build an elegant residence this lot presents a fine opportunity for location. For terms, &c., apply to the undersigned

WM. M'CARRELL.

EYE All those with impaired vision, who desire the assistance of Mr. Sinclair as an Optician are earnestly urged to visit his Optical Institute at the earliest date, and procure a pair of the Diamond Spectacles. tf

Those afflicted with any disease of a delicate nature may obtain the best of medical aid at Galen's Head Dispensary, 422 Fifth street. A Medical Treatise on these diseases, with twenty valuable prescriptions, may be had gratis on application. Address box 720, Louisville, Ky.

ELECTRICAL, THERMAL AND HYDROPATHIC Establishment.—The attention of the public is invited to the following facts in reference to the cause and treatment of disease by Mrs. Dr. Powell, corner of Jefferson street, three doors west of Third street.

Mrs. Powell is a natural clairvoyant, and by the exercise of her power of internal seeing and feeling, during her residence in Louisville, has enabled to cure many cases of disease which had before baffled all medical skill, and in the majority of the cases of her patients, she was called to place round of the cure before the public. Mrs. Powell makes use of her powers only to benefit the suffering. She is able to see and correctly diagnose disease, either by a lock of hair or the presence of the individual. She always candidly tells the patients whether they can be cured or otherwise. In her treatment, she makes use of electricity and cold water and such harmless remedies as she deems suitable, seeks to be best adapted to each case. Dr. Powell's office is in Louisville, Ky., box 1125.

TRUNKS.—Those who would save money will study their own interest when they want trunks of any kind, valises, carpet-bags, traveling trunks, or ladies' bonnet-boxes, to call at the Trunk Emporium of Edward Stewart, No. 225 Market street, south side, between Second and Third streets. If you would buy a good article low go there. m4 d1y

BRIEF TESTIMONY.

DR. C. W. BONER, M. D., POSTMISTRESS KY., Aug. 30, '59.

Dear Sir: For the past several months I have been laboring under great weakness and general debility, much of the time confined to my bed, and from which I received no benefit from my physician. After using some of your blood pills and blood purifier, purchased of your agent, Mr. Wm. H. H. Plummer, I feel as a new person, almost entirely free from disease, and would recommend your medicines to all who are in need of so invaluable remedies.

Yours, truly,

MARY Y. HOFFMAN.

☞ See advertisement in another column.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The Troy Times, speaking of Messrs. W. L. Ingan & Co., says: "Careful and competent apothecaries, every thing from them may be relied upon, and anything bearing their name may be purchased with confidence and safety." Also are the manufacturers of Heimstreet's Hair Restorative, advertised in another column. my18 d&wom

WATCHES AND JEWELRY AT COST.—P. W. Ramsey, on Third street, between Main and Market, is selling out at cost, for cash only. He has a great variety of fine watches, jewelry, silver ware, clocks, spectacles, gold pens, &c. Call and see for yourselves.

☞ A time when there is great fear that the stock of dry lumber, sash, doors, blinds, &c., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co., have enlarged their factory and have now on hand several million of dry lumber. Call at their office on Main street, nearly opposite the Gait House, or at their factory on Fulton, above Preston street.

TRUNKS.—Among the places worthy of the attention of the visitors to Louisville at the present time, is the great trunk manufactory and emporium of J. H. McCleary, on the northeast corner of Fourth and Main streets. His large manufactory enables him to supply trunks, valises, bonnet and hat boxes, carpet bags, ladies' reticules, etc., of the very best quality, at unprecedented low prices. All of Mr. McCleary's work is beautiful as well as durable. Give him a call.

Look to Your Interests.

The people are aware that D. O'Hare, No. 427 Main street, is the oldest, largest and most experienced manufacturer of trunks and similar articles in the city. They should avail themselves of the rare opportunities afforded by Mr. O'Hare. To country and city merchants he offers peculiar advantages in his wholesale department, while in the retail line he cannot be equaled. Who ever wants to travel, whether with a small carpet-bag or a mammoth trunk, need go no further than to the Great Western Trunk Factory of Mr. O'Hare.

The manufactory is a credit to Louisville, and should meet with extensive patronage. Hundreds of workmen are employed, and thousands of dollars weekly disbursed. As a matter of home pride, and to subserve economy, purchasers will consult their best interests in purchasing of Mr. O'Hare.

☞ LARKY'S THEOPHEROUS is the best and cheapest article for dressing, beautifying, cleansing, curling, preserving and restoring the hair. Ladies, try it. Sold by all Druggists and Perfumers. mr16 d6m

FINE FURNITURE.—Wharton & Bennett keep constantly on hand a large stock of desirable parlor, office and chamber furniture, of all kinds and patterns which they sell at their warerooms at the lowest prices. Their store is Nos. 502 and 504 Market street, between Second and Third. d6f

☞ J. N. Collins sells the best of coal at his store, Third street, between Market and Jefferson. Give him your orders. dtf

DOORS, SASH, BLINDS, BOXES, LUMBER AND SCROLLS.—Messrs. Breeden & Bradley have on hand a large lot of doors, sash, blinds, boxes, &c., at their warerooms, on First street, between Main and the river, and they are prepared to execute all orders for woodwork necessary for the inside finish of frame or brick houses of every description, at low rates. They invite special attention to the large stock of well seasoned pine lumber and shingles at their yard on Wenzel street, between Broad and Floyd. They furnish bills of prices on application, and solicit orders in their line.
